

Sunday between 25 September and 1 October (Proper 26)

Psalm 78:1-4, 12-16

A Hear my teaching, O my people;
incline your ears to the words of my mouth.
I will open my mouth in a parable;
I will declare the mysteries of ancient times.

B That which we have heard and known, and what our forefathers have told us, we will not hide from their children.
We will recount to generations to come the praiseworthy deeds and the power of the Lord,
and the wonderful works he has done.

B He worked marvels in the sight of their forefathers,
in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.
He split open the sea and let them pass through;
he made the waters stand up like walls.

A 1 - He led them with a cloud by day,
2 - and all the night through with a glow of fire.
1 - He split the hard rocks in the wilderness
2 - and gave them drink as from the great deep.
3 - He brought streams out of the cliff,
4 - and the waters gushed out like rivers.
