

Third Sunday after the Epiphany (Proper 3)

Psalm 19 (excerpts)

A The heavens declare the glory of God,
and the firmament shows his handiwork.
One day tells its tale to an-other,
and one night imparts knowledge to an-other.

B Although they have no words or language,
and their voices are not heard,
their sound has gone out into all lands,
and their message to the ends of the world.

A The law of the Lord is perfect and revives the soul;
the testimony of the Lord is sure and gives wisdom to the innocent.
The statutes of the Lord are just and rejoice the heart;
the commandment of the Lord is clear and gives light to the eyes.

B The fear of the Lord is clean and endures for ever;
the judgements of the Lord are true and righteous alto-gether.
More to be desired are they than gold, more than much fine gold, sweeter far than honey, than honey in the comb.

A By them also is your servant en-lightened,
and in keeping them there is great re-ward.
Who can tell how often they of-fend?
Cleanse me from my secret faults.
